

Job Description – Commercial Gas Engineer

An exciting opportunity to join our fast-growing business, with excellent prospects for advancement as we continually strengthen our position in the South East.

We are seeking a Service and Maintenance engineer capable of working independently or as a team member. The ideal applicant will be able to display good self-management and interpersonal skills.

Specific duties will include:

- Carrying out routine planned maintenance tasks
- Diagnosing breakdown faults
- Carrying out repair work
- Completing daily paperwork (Electronic)
- Giving advice to customers on equipment operation
- Assisting with quotations
- Working to company procedures
- Dealing with emergencies and unplanned breakdowns - inclusion in out of hours on call rota
- Maintaining customer relationships
- Assisting with small installations

In addition, ideally you will have the following qualifications:

- All relevant qualifications are essential (Gas certification, CSCS Card)
- Completed a recognized apprenticeship
- Minimum of 5 year's experience

Benefits:

- Fantastic working environment
- Opportunities to further broaden your skillset (CPD)
- Smart Phone, Van, Uniform
- Company Pension
- Huge potential for career progression within the department

Interested candidates please send CVs to jobs@4facilities.co.uk

Or phone 01273 044045

Salary dependent on experience.